Re: Abu Nahl v. Abou Jaoude
No. 15 Civ. 09755 (LGS)
Report on Status of Efforts to Effect Service

Dear Judge Schofield:

Pursuant to the Court's Order of March 3, 2016, Plaintiffs submit this letter regarding their efforts to effect service upon defendants in the above-captioned action.

Defendants Georges Zard Abou Jaoude, Mohamed Hamdoun, and Ahmad Safa have appeared in this action. They have filed a motion to dismiss, which is currently pending. The Court issued Requests for International Judicial Assistance ("letters rogatory") seeking to serve additional defendants. The Court issued a letter rogatory to the Republic of Togo seeking its assistance in serving defendant Oussama Salhab. As of the date of this letter, no certification has been returned affirming that the Togolese authorities have successfully executed the letter rogatory with respect to this defendant.

The Court also issued letters rogatory to the Republic of Lebanon seeking its assistance in serving additional defendants to this action: Mahmoud Hassan Ayash, Hassan Ayash Exchange Company, Ellissa Holding Company, and the Lebanese Canadian Bank. The Lebanese Ministry of Justice has affirmed that a judicial warrant for Hassan Ayash¹ has been fulfilled. As of the date of this letter, no certification has been returned affirming that the Lebanese authorities have successfully executed the letters rogatory with respect to Hassan Ayash Exchange Company, Ellissa Holding Company, or the Lebanese Canadian Bank.

To ensure proper service on those defendants as to whom letters rogatory have not been returned, Plaintiffs sought the assistance of the Clerk of the Court to serve such defendants by Federal Express. The Clerk of the Court sent Federal Express packages to Mahmoud Hassan Ayash, Hassan Ayash Exchange Company, the Lebanese Canadian Bank, Oussama Salhab, and Ellissa Exchange Company. Plaintiffs understand that Federal Express successfully delivered service to defendants Mahmoud Hassan Ayash, Hassan Ayash Exchange Company, and the Lebanese Canadian Bank. Copies of the delivery confirmations were previously provided to the Court.

Respectfully submitted,
